Evangelism Everywhere

by Allison Hill, OPC Short Term Missions Administrative Assistant

"Gospel-sharing starts right where you are, and it goes out from there. Evangelism isn't reserved for far-away mission trips—evangelism should be a part of the Christian's daily life," says Tyler Detrick, pastor of Light of the Nations OPC in Dayton, Ohio. This convicting statement is not mere sentiment for Pastor Detrick but is strongly supported by his demonstrated passion for and work in the area of evangelism and missions. For years, Christ's command in Matthew 28:19 to make disciples has drawn Detrick to be intentional about evangelism. His latest plan to encourage mission-mindedness in his congregation and presbytery? A full-blown youth evangelism conference.

Inspired by the notable and admired work of the Boardwalk Chapel in Wildwood, NJ, Pastor Detrick desired to see the endeavor of that regional mission outpost brought home. Bring it home, he did. After an extended period of planning and correspondence with Chris Byrd, Boardwalk Chapel evangelist, about how a local evangelism event might be conducted with the same goals in mind as the Chapel, plans for a local missions event finally came together. In August, twenty-seven youth gathered at Light of the Nations Church for a four-day evangelism training event. Youth from congregations throughout the Presbytery of Ohio participated in service opportunities, training sessions, and public evangelism events during their time in Dayton.

UPDATES

The Finish Line and Beyond in Neon—

by Trish Duggan, OPC Disaster Response Communications Coordinator

As we reported a few weeks ago, only a few final touches to the interior are needed to complete the OPC Disaster effort at Neon Reformed OPC—just shy of three months after the building was deluged with more than six feet of muddy water! This is certainly cause for praising our great God! Pastor Jay Bennett, although relieved and excited to move worship back into the building says, "I feel like a sprinter who has just run much further than he ever trained to run. With the on-site work drawing to a close, I feel some measure of relief. I'm looking forward to being back in our own building for worship services this Sunday. I think the church has been amazed and encouraged by the love and support of the broader OP Church."
